Thank you for your letter of 11 August regarding the status of your application for employment with this Agency.

I find that your file has been considered by the officials who would be most likely to have a requirement for a man of your qualifications and experience. These officials have expressed interest in you but do not have any openings in the immediate future which would permit us to take advantage of your availability. The Director of Personnel is now reviewing your file in connection with other possibilities but these are less likely to result in any positive development of interest to you.

We appreciate your having given us primary consideration but, since your retirement is scheduled for October and the outlook here is rather dubious, you may wish to investigate other opportunities without waiting for a final answer from us.

I have asked that the present reviews of your file be completed as soon as possible so that you can be given a specific picture of the outlook for you here.
